Students open the Student Hub and tap 'Make a Booking' in the app's menu

The image shows a screenshot of the Student Hub app interface. On the left is a dark teal sidebar menu with the following items: Home, Calendar, Chat, My Channels, My Groups, Saved Items, Make a Booking (highlighted with a yellow box), Help & Feedback, Campus Mapping, Key Academic Dates, and a Quick links section with an Email option. The main content area displays a post from the LSE Volunteer Centre, dated 25 days ago, featuring a collage of colorful hand-drawn cards. The text of the post reads: "We're excited to have you back next week, so we're hosting a one-off volunteering session! Join us in LSE LIFE Workspace 2 on Thursday, to make a card for a seriously ill child, with Post Pals. It's a great way to relax during studying, whilst giving something back! 😊". Below the text is a "Sign up here!" link, a heart icon, and a "6 comments" indicator. Below this is a post from the London School of Economics and Political Science (LSE), dated 2 months ago, titled "Event late April" with the date and time "Mon 29th Apr 14:00" and a "Find out more" button.

On the Make a Booking screen, students will search for the name of an academic or team they want to make an appointment with

The screenshot displays the 'Make a Booking' interface. On the left, a teal sidebar identifies the user as 'Chris Student' with the email 'studenthub@lse.ac.uk'. Below this is a 'Student Hub' menu with icons and labels for: Home, Calendar, Chat, My Channels, My Groups, Saved Items, Make a Booking (highlighted), Help & Feedback, Campus Mapping, and Key Academic Dates. At the bottom of the sidebar are 'Quick links' including Email. The main content area is titled 'Make a Booking' and features a search input field containing 'zoel'. A dropdown menu is open below the input, showing 'Select an academic or a team' and a single result: 'Zoe Paxman'. A 'Book' button is positioned to the right of the search result.

Students can then view the upcoming available appointments with that particular academic or team and book a slot

Students can choose to add a message and/or upload a file when booking

The screenshot displays a user interface for a student booking system. On the left is a dark green sidebar with a user profile for 'Chris Student' (studenthub@lse.ac.uk) and a 'Student Hub' menu with options like Home, Calendar, Chat, My Channels, My Groups, Saved Items, Make a Booking, Help & Feedback, Campus Mapping, and Key Academic Dates. The main area shows 'Available times for Zoe Paxman' with a calendar for June 2019. A modal window titled 'Make a Booking' is open, showing the appointment details: 'With: Zoe Paxman', 'Date: Monday 10 June 2019', and 'From: 16:30 - 16:50'. The modal includes a text input for 'Booking message', a '+ Choose file' button, a large teal 'CONFIRM BOOKING' button, and a 'Cancel' button. In the background, three 'Book' buttons are visible on the calendar grid.

Students see a confirmation of their booking and can view the appointment in their Student Hub calendar.
