Welcome message from our partners

The Shanghai Association for International Exchange of Personnel is pleased to support the Shanghai Careers Fair and looks forward to welcoming you to the event. The role of the SAIEP is to promote Shanghai so that more people understand more about this city. The goal is to turn Shanghai into a city able to attract and retain various talents to work in Shanghai or contribute to Shanghai's growth!

The Shanghai Returned Scholar Federation builds connections with local and overseas Non-Government Organizations for returned scholars. It has a large number of members, most of whom are 'returned Chinese scholars', having studied all over the world.

UEC Cross Culture Links is certified by the Chinese government SAFEA to promote exchange between Britain and China. The UK Liaison Office of SAIEP recruits talent for the Shanghai government and the 'Recruitment Scheme of Senior Overseas Talents'. UEC organized the "Year 2008 Shanghai Overseas Financial Recruitment Fair for First Class Talents", "Year 2004 Shanghai Recruitment Fair" and "Year 2003 Shanghai Pudong Recruitment Fair" in London

To learn more about your future in Shanghai, come and visit our stand number 62 where you can learn about us and how we can assist you.

International Committee of the Red Cross, Regional Delegation for East Asia Stand 60

www.icrc.org/en/where-we-work/asia-pacific/china

International Committee of the Red Cross. The International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC) is an impartial, neutral and independent organization whose exclusively humanitarian mission is to protect the lives and dignity of victims of armed conflict and other situations of violence and to provide them with assistance. Established in 1863, the ICRC is at the origin of the International Red Cross and Red Crescent Movement and contemporary international humanitarian law, which is a set of rules seeking, for humanitarian reasons, to limit the effects of armed conflict. It protects persons who are not or no longer participating in the hostilities and restricts the means and methods of warfare. International humanitarian law is also known as the law of war or the law of armed conflict. ICRC hires around 500 professional staff for field-based humanitarian assignments each year. The employment is full time and the initial one year assignments can take place in one of over 80 countries around the world, where we have operations. We are interested to retain our staff and offer mid to long term career opportunities. We require professionals with at least two years of international exposure and working experience. Due to our broad range of activities we seek candidates from the fields of international relations, engineering, health, protection, detention, logistics, legal, communications, human resources, finance and administration, food security and more. A good level of English is a requirement, as is French for a number of positions. Additional languages such as Arabic, Russian or Spanish is a strong asset. We offer unique and rewarding work in a humanitarian and multicultural environment, a competitive salary, attractive social benefits, as well as opportunities for training and development in management and other professional fields. We also offer some 80 paid traineeships (six to twelve months) per year based at our headquarters in Geneva.
