

Welcome to all our students

We are committed to providing a high quality campus for students, staff and visitors and are in the midst of a huge investment programme to create better facilities for LSE. The £145m Marshall Building opened in 2022. Our next major project is the Firoz Lalji Global Hub, located at 35 Lincoln's Inn Fields, which will be LSE's first net zero carbon building and opens in 2026.

This guide has been designed to help you find your way around campus and help you get the most out of the facilities the School has to offer.

For more information, regular updates and new features visit: lse.ac.uk/facilities or see the Student Hub.

We are continually striving to provide excellent services and would encourage you to help us improve this further by giving us your feedback on this guide – email estates.admin@lse.ac.uk with suggestions before 31 October for the chance to win a prize. See the back cover for details of our "Don't Walk Past" campaign, which encourages students to report faults at any time.

We do hope you enjoy your time at LSE.

With best wishes.

Allan Blair

Director of Facilities Management

Give us your feedback for the chance to win a prize

This guide was designed to help you find your way around campus and get the most out of the facilities the School has to offer.

We would like to know if you found the guide useful and if there is anything we should consider including in future editions. Please email your feedback/suggestions to estates.admin@lse.ac.uk

Feedback and suggestions received before 31 October 2023 will be entered into a prize draw for a £50 Amazon voucher.

Thank you

General information

If you have a query about campus facilities at any time, the main reception in the Old Building is always open to provide assistance.

The following buildings have staffed receptions: Centre Building, Cheng Kin Ku Building, Fawcett House, the Library, Marshall Building, Pankhurst House, Pethick-Lawrence House, Saw Swee Hock Student Centre and the Sir Arthur Lewis Building.

The LSE campus is a very busy and vibrant environment. We hope that you can enjoy it while respecting other people and their right to enjoy the campus without disturbance or unseemly behaviour. In this spirit we ask that you observe the School policies and procedures that are in place.

Campus opening times

Monday – Friday: 7am – 11pm. After 6.30pm a LSE swipe card is required for access.

Saturday - Sunday: 8am - 10pm. Access to campus buildings is by LSE swipe card or via main reception in Old Building.

Campus access at weekends is primarily for staff only, although access is available for students to buildings where services such as sports facilities operate during weekends.

During holiday periods access arrangements may vary. For more information visit: info.lse.ac.uk/staff/divisions/estates-division/a-z-of-services/security

Library opening times

Autumn term: 8am – Midnight.

Winter term, Spring break and Spring term: 24-hour opening.

Summer break: 8am – Midnight.

Room numbering

Room numbers when shown on timetables or in publications indicate the building, the floor and the room. On a door sign within a building only the floor and room are shown. Basement floors begin with B, ground with G, first with 1 and so on. Room numbers start with .01 and run sequentially through the floor, so first floor rooms would run 1.01, 1.02, 1.03.

Please check carefully when accessing rooms in SAL – eg, SALG.10 is a ground floor room, not lower ground.

Reporting faults and defects on campus

The Estates Helpdesk aims to ensure that faults are attended to promptly, in order to do this we need to know about them.

If you see a fault or defect with any facility on campus please report it by calling 020 7955 7956 or ext 7956.

For emergencies call: 020 7831 8713 or ext 2444.

Email: estates-help-desk@lse.ac.uk

Keeping safe on campus

The aim of this section is to provide important safety information.

The main School reception in the Old Building is staffed 24 hours per day.

Accidents

Students should report all accidents, incidents or near misses on campus to Security or the administrators in their Departments. If you require an ambulance, call 999 (UK emergency services number) and then call Security on 666 (from internal phone) or 020 7955 6555.

Bike safety

The School provides secure day use bike park facilities in the basement of Cheng Kin Ku Building, Fawcett/Pankhurst House and Marshall Building. These are free to use and you can gain access with your LSE Student card. Other options are the numerous bike racks around the campus (see chart on page 29). It is advisable to use either a gold rated "Sold Secure" endorsed padlock and chain or D-lock. Take a note of your bike's serial number (usually found on the underside of your bike frame) and look out for free bike security marking by the police and mechanical checks (Dr Bike pop ups) during the School term.

Cash machines (ATMs)

When on campus use the cash machines situated inside the Post Office at 95 Aldwych or on Houghton Street (next to Wright's Bar).

Stay with friends especially when walking at night or stopping to get money from a cash machine. If anyone approaches you when you are using a cash machine do not be distracted; immediately cancel your transaction, remove your card and walk away – notify campus Security or Police.

Fire procedures

On hearing the fire alarm signal, all persons must leave the building they are in promptly and make their way to the appropriate assembly point for that building. People should not attempt to re-enter the building until they have been directed by a member of Security staff that it is safe to do so.

Note: in CBG, CKK, FAW, PAN, PEL and SAW there is an additional signal for occupants to prepare to evacuate. If you hear this signal, you should wait for the full alarm before leaving. For more information visit the fire safety web pages.

Anyone who has a disability or medical condition (whether temporary or permanent) that could affect their ability to respond to a fire alarm and leave a building using staircases should contact the Fire Safety Officer (estates. fire.safety@lse.ac.uk) so that a personal emergency evacuation plan can be developed for them.

Fire alarm testing schedule

To find out when to expect the fire alarm testing in your building please check the schedule.

First-aid

If you need first-aid for a minor injury on campus call Security using an internal telephone and dialling 666 (or call 020 7955 6555 from your mobile). For more serious injuries call the emergency services directly by dialling 999 or 112 to summon an ambulance. You must then let Security know so that they can direct the ambulance crew to the correct location.

There are six defibrillators on campus located at the receptions in CKK, LRB, MAR, OLD, PAN and SAL. There is also a defibrillator in SAW (SU Gym).

Laptop Safety

If you are going out for a drink, don't take your laptop with you. Use the secure laptop storage room OLD G.15. Use tracking software on your laptop. There are free applications that you can download, we recommend preyproject.com

Library

LSE Library is a safe working environment but you must look after your personal belongings when working there. Never leave your belongings unattended, even for a short period of time.

Lifts

Do not use lifts if the fire alarm sounds, unless directed by Security. Do not overload lifts. Information on what to do if the lift breaks down is displayed in the lift. Some buildings are served by platform lifts. If you observe a fault with a lift please report it to Estates Helpdesk.

Property lost and found

Lost and found property is handled by LSE Security and the first point of call is the Old Building reception. The Property Office is located in OLD B.23 and opening times are Monday – Thursday, 9.30am – 1.30pm.

The School is one of the few institutions in central London to maintain an open campus policy. This means that throughout the day many School buildings are open. This provides a free and collegiate atmosphere that many in the School enjoy. We are keen that you enjoy this too, but always bear in mind that the School is a public place and cannot be treated as your home. You would not leave your valuables unattended on a park bench and you should not leave them unattended in the Library, the Garrick Cafe or any other public area of the School.

Smoking policy

Smoking, which includes electronic vaping and herbal cigarettes, is prohibited inside all buildings on the campus and all LSE halls of residence, residents' rooms and any other building or facility managed by the School. The prohibition extends to roof terraces, building entrances, including doorways, steps, ramps, external fire escape stairways and escape routes. Ashbins are positioned just outside the entrance to buildings, these are provided so that smokers can dispose of their cigarette materials before they enter the building, (not for people to smoke at entrances). To view the full policy see here.

Medical and childcare provision

The health and wellbeing of all LSE students and staff is of paramount importance to the School, and so the following services are offered to the LSE community during their time at the School.

St Philips Medical Centre

Location: 2nd floor, Pethick-Lawrence House (PEL)

Contact: 020 7611 5131

Website: www.stphilipsmedicalcentre.co.uk

An NHS General Practice staffed by Doctors, Nurses, Clinical Pharmacists, Physician's Associates and Social Prescribers. We provide medical and nursing care to registered patients.

The team offers support with acute medical problems, chronic disease management, mental health, contraception and family planning, cervical screening and immunisations.

We have a close working relationship with the LSE Disability and Wellbeing service and the LSE Counselling service.

Referrals can be made for specialist management in Secondary (Hospital) Care when needed.

The surgery offers a range of pre-bookable and urgent same day appointments that can be in-person or by phone. We encourage our patients to use e-Consult which enables contact with one of our clinicians on-line.

We advise all students to register at the start of term so that should you need any help or support, it is easier to organise an appointment and access the appropriate care needed.

NHS Walk-In Centre

Location: 1 Frith St, Soho, London W1D 3HZ

Contact: 020 7534 6500

Website: clch.nhs.uk/services/walk-in-centres

Patients (registered and unregistered) can attend the booked clinic via a referral from the NHS 111 service or by telephoning the clinic.

Alternatively please call 111 or visit 111.nhs.uk/

Sardinia House Dental Practice

Location: 4th floor, Sardinia House (SAR)

Contact: 020 7404 8600/07834 169974

Email: info@sardiniadental.com

To book visit: sardiniadental.com/contact

An independent dental practice offering preferential rates to LSE staff and students.

LSE Treatment Clinic

Location: 1st floor, Fawcett House

To book visit: Isetreatmentclinic.co.uk

Email: enquiries@lsetreatmentclinic.co.uk

Open: Monday - Friday

Offering reduced fees for LSE students and staff.

Treatments include Acupuncture, Ostepathy, Sports Therapy and Remedial Massage.

Expectant and new mothers room

Location: 1st floor, Fawcett House

Contact: FAW/PAN reception

A room where expectant mothers can rest and new mothers who return to work when they are still breast-feeding can express and store milk. This facility is available for LSE staff and students. Please note baby change facilities are located in CKK G.04, MAR 1.13, OLD G.04, 4.06, 4.07 and 5.10. Please click here for further details.

Nursery Partnerships

LSE has partnership agreements in place with three local nurseries near to campus so that LSE staff and students can access discounted childcare. These nurseries were selected for their Ofsted rating, location, availability of spaces, outside space, operating hours, fresh food provision, emergency care support and more. For LSE students, the School will provide a subsidy towards the standard nursery rates. For more details, including the process for students to apply, please see the Nursery Partnerships webpage.

Cleaning and servicing on campus

Cleaning takes place weekdays as per the building schedules which can be found on these pages.

Buildings with teaching facilities have janitorial provision between 9am – 10pm, while administrative buildings 9am – 5pm. If you see a spillage or any potential slip hazard please report it to Estates Helpdesk by calling 0207 831 8713, (ext.2444) or emailing estates-help-desk@lse.ac.uk

We politely ask you to be considerate to your fellow students and avoid the consumption of food and drink in the lecture theatres.

Weekend cleaning and janitorial servicing

CBG, CKK, the Library, MAR, OLD and SAW are cleaned routinely and serviced throughout weekends.

All other cleaning and janitorial staff provided at the weekend are to service prebooked rooms. Please contact estates.fm@lse.ac.uk if the following applies to your event:

- · Over 50 guests are anticipated
- Event set up is required before 9am
- Room booking made after Thursday via the room booking system.

This will ensure the correct staffing levels are available on the day.

Waste and recycling

We work together to follow the "waste hierarchy" – Reduce, Reuse, Recycle, Recover. The School has a "Zero Waste to Landfill" policy.

REDUCE

Avoid waste and think before you buy. Use reusable items such as a bottle, cup, bag, food box etc. For more ideas take a look at our Zero Waste Toolkit on page 22.

REUSE

Reuse unwanted items: how could you get creative and re-purpose them, or donate them to another student or to charity?

RECYCLE

Recycle correctly. Confused about what goes in which bin? Check out our Recycling Guide or request a Waste Workshop for your team.

RECOVER

LSE sends the remainder of our waste to produce energy, rather than landfill.

Reuse on campus

- Clothes: LSESU have a Vintage Clothing and Charity Shop in Kings Chambers that welcomes donations during shop hours (see page 72 for more information). There is also a British Heart Foundation donation box located on the first floor of SAW (SU), as well as in each LSE-managed halls of residence.
- Books: LSE runs a charity book donation scheme. To give books please arrange collection by contacting LSE Porters, email estates.porters@lse.ac.uk

Recycling

- Bins are located around campus, in kitchen areas, in offices and in shared spaces in halls of residence. We are all responsible for recycling correctly.
 For a breakdown of what goes in which bin at LSE, visit our waste and recycling page.
- Make sure no food or liquid go into mixed recycling bins. This can make other items in the recycling bin wet (contaminated) and no longer recyclable. If in doubt, keep it out!
- Spotted our orange bins on campus? They're for disposable hot drinks cups! Separate the remaining liquids, the lid and the cup in the respective compartments. Try and remember your reusable hot drinks cup when visiting campus though! LSE Catering outlets sell branded KeepCups for £9.50
- If you are unsure about how to correctly dispose of an item, or you wish to report any issues related to waste, please contact sustainability.team@lse.ac.uk

Special recycling

There are points on campus to recycle batteries, mobile phones, CDs and DVDs, Waste Electrical and Electronic Equipment (WEEE). See locations on the campus map on page 24, or contact the Sustainability Team for more information. Please contact LSE Porters to arrange a collection of toner, laserjet and inkjet cartridges by emailing: estates.porters@lse.ac.uk

Halls of residence

All LSE-managed halls of residence have collection points, known as "ReLove" points, for you to donate your items to give them a second life.

"ReLoved" items are donated to charity, currently the British Heart Foundation (BHF). Accepted items are clothes, shoes and bedding (not duvets), books and stationery, furniture and kitchen equipment (cutlery accepted but nothing sharp). Every year around 8-9 tonnes of unwanted items are donated!

Practising Zero Waste

On campus

- Why not prepare your lunches in advance and bring to campus in reusable storage containers? This not only reduces packaging, but also saves money and generally can work out healthier than grab and go convenience food.
- It is easy to avoid using single-use cutlery, by having your own reusable set when you visit campus.
- Purchase your own reusable bottle/hot drink cup, and bring it with you so you avoid buying single-use bottles or hot drink cups.
 - Did you know 8 million disposable cups are used in the UK every day? Only 4 per cent of these get recycled. Let's change this statistic.
- Bring tote bags with you or reuse plastic bags, so you never have to accept new bags.

At home

- Soap and shampoo bars are compact, so they produce fewer emissions during transport than their liquid equivalents. They often have little (and recyclable) or no packaging compared to their plastic bottle counterparts. Lots of brands offer refill packs now too, which is a good option for reducing packaging waste.
- Reusable facial pads are machine washable and you can use them hundreds of times (eg, to remove your makeup).
- Did you know menstrual products such as tampons and sanitary towels contain plastics? Zero waste your periods by purchasing a menstrual cup or washable pads. They will also save so much money in the long run!

Get involved in sustainability at LSE

Wanting to make a difference during your time at LSE and interested in sustainability?

Here's how:

- Introduction to Sustainability at LSE: Take the Introduction to Sustainability at LSE module on Moodle.
- Subscribe to our monthly newsletter, Green Flash.
- Follow us on Instagram, Twitter, and the LSE Student Hub: @SustainableLSE.
- Join one of our environmental societies! We have several to chose from, including Sustainable Futures Society, Beekeeping Society and the Circular Economy Society. Find out more here.
- Be proactive in our #SustainableLSE halls campaign, which is all about reducing energy and water consumption and improving recycling rates.
- Green Impact, our sustainability engagement programme encourages teams to work to complete sustainable actions to help the School reduce their environmental impact. Email sustainability.team@lse.ac.uk to find out more about how you could get involved.
- Beekeeping and rooftop gardening on the Shaw Library roof terrace as well as our new Hedgehog Friendly Campus Club.

Transport and facilities for cyclists

Walking

The easiest and cheapest way to get to know London and move between the LSE campus and halls of residence is by walking.

Central London suffers from poor air quality but by avoiding the main roads with highest concentrations of traffic you can reduce your exposure to air pollution by 30-60 per cent.

Plan your route with the Mayor of London Clean Air Route finder; explore real time pollution spots from London Air Quality Network.

Walk some of London's favourite routes highlighted by Transport for London.

Public transport

Full information on any form of public transport throughout London and a journey planner service for walking, cycling, underground, buses and trains can be found on the Transport for London (TFL) website: tfl.gov.uk

The following London Underground (tube) stations are near the LSE campus: Holborn (Central Line and Piccadilly Line), Covent Garden (Piccadilly Line), Temple (Circle Line and District Line), Leicester Square (Northern Line), Charing Cross (Bakerloo Line), Waterloo (Jubilee Line) and Farringdon (Metropolitan Line and Hammersmith and City Line).

Buses that stop on or near the Aldwych are numbers:

1/9/11/15/ 23/26/59/68/X68/76/87/91/168/172/188/243/341.

Each bus stop should show which buses stop there and their frequency. On the front of the bus the final destination will be given. It may also show the names of the main stops on its route.

The closest mainline rail stations to the LSE campus are as follows:

Waterloo – on the other side of the river from the Strand over Waterloo Bridge. Approximately 10-15 minutes walk.

Trains to and from the south coast and south west of England.

Charing Cross – on the Trafalgar Square end of the Strand. Approximately a 10 minute walk. Trains mainly to south east London and Kent.

City Thameslink – on Ludgate Hill at the end of Fleet Street. Approximately 10-15 minutes walk. Trains to Brighton (including Gatwick airport) and Bedford (including Luton airport).

Blackfriars – on the Embankment near Blackfriars Bridge. Approximately 10-15 minutes walk. Trains mainly to south London and south east England, but also the First Capital Connect line through north London.

Farringdon or Tottenham Court Rd – both approximately 15 minutes walk. Trains to Heathrow or Reading and Abbey Wood or Shenfield on the new Elizabeth Line.

Euston – on Euston Road, close to the northern end of Tottenham Court Road. Approximately 30 minutes walk. Trains to the north of England.

King's Cross – on Euston Road, close to the British Library. Approximately 30 minutes walk. Trains to the north of England and to Scotland.

St Pancras International – on Euston Road, close to King's Cross station. Approximately 30 minutes walk. Serves the Eurostar and trains to the Midlands and Kent.

Liverpool Street – past St Paul's Cathedral and the Bank of England from the end of Fleet Street. Approximately 30 minutes walk. Trains to Stansted Airport and Southend Airport.

Cycling to LSE

Riding a bike is good for your health, good for the environment, cost effective and great fun. What's more there are plenty of facilities and apps to get you on your way and discovering new places!

You can select quiet cycle routes using the City Mapper app.

You can also use the bicycle icon on Google Maps and the Transport for London journey planner to work out the best way to go.

To find out more about options for hiring or buying a bike join the LSE Bicycle User Group @LSEBUG.

Check out our dedicated webpage with a map showing the location of all cycle parking, maintenance and shower facilities across campus and links to information on safer cycling routes produced by The Northbank and TFL.

The Santander Cycle Hire Scheme have docking stations on Houghton Street, Portugal Street, Sardinia Street, Kingsway and Lincoln's Inn Fields. The bikes are available 24 hours a day and are great for short journeys around central London.

Cycle facilities on campus

There are 503 (mostly indoor) cycle parking spaces on campus with access restricted to LSE students and staff only, as well as 540 open access spaces. Access to indoor parking is determined by the building access you have been assigned on your LSE swipe card. These facilities are monitored by the LSE Security CCTV. Please call Security on 020 7955 6200 should you need assistance.

We have improved lighting and wayfinding in the basement of FAW and created additional shower facilities (5 gender neutral shower rooms) plus a drying room (FAW B.14A - items left at owners risk).

There are open access cycle parking spaces bordering the campus on Kingsway and Aldwych.

All LSE halls of residence have cycle parking facilities.

Bicycles must be stored in designated bicycle storage facilities, and are not permitted in any other locations on campus.

Folding bikes measuring no greater than 565mm (h) x 586mm (w) x 270mm (d) should be folded prior to entering any campus buildings and stored safely within office space or in folding bike lockers provided in MAR B1.04.

Bike maintenance stations

Bike maintenance stations located in the secure cycle storage areas in CKK basement, and FAW/PAN basement are available for LSE students and staff to fix their own bikes on campus. They contain secured bike tools and a pump, as well as a stand to support the bike for easy repairs. All repairs you make to your bike are at your own risk – so make sure you don't lose any of those little screws!

Look out for Dr Bike pop ups (free bike checks and basic repairs) and bike marking pop-up sessions on campus, which generally occur termly. These are promoted by Sustainable LSE team on social media, and in the student newsletter.

Additional bike pumps can be found on John Watkins Plaza (opposite the Library) and outside SAW (opposite Parish Hall).

Social and green spaces

The LSE campus offers many areas of communal space for meeting and socialising, and is within close walking distance of some of the most attractive green spaces in central London.

In addition to the surrounding green space we are also adding more spaces and enhancing biodiversity across campus by utilising aspects of the urban environment such as rooftops and walls. We have a green roof on the 5th floor of Saw Swee Hock Student Centre, 6th floor of St Clement's and another on top of the Plaza Cafe plus a brown roof on Connaught House, a green wall on the Old Building and planters with nectar rich plants to support the LSE bees. Our resident beehives and the roof top garden outside the Shaw Library are managed by the Beekeeping Society and Roof Top Garden Group respectively. To find out more visit info.lse.ac.uk/staff/divisions/estates-division/sustainable-lse/get-involved/biodiversity-clubs

Centre Building, learning commons

On the ground floor there are a variety of study spaces, providing opportunities for students to engage in different modes of informal collaborative working, offering the ability to learn and create in a fun and inspiring way. There are quiet study spaces for individual work and small group huddles, nooks suitable for brainstorming ideas and casual meetings further away from the main circulation areas, where you are less likely to be disturbed. Larger group work and more transient interactions are encouraged in the open plan spaces nearer to the cafe and main entrance.

Cheng Kin Ku Building communal areas

The Cheng Kin Ku Building offers several high quality spaces for social interaction. Soft seating can be found in the lower ground lobby and on the two mezzanine levels. The 8th floor pavilion and roof terrace with biodiversity planting are also available when not reserved for meetings/private functions.

Departmental common rooms

Some academic departments and research centres offer their students common rooms and study space. Please check with your department/centre manager to see if any space has been allocated for this by your department or research centre.

Escape social space in the Library

This social space in the Library foyer is ideal for relaxing, eating and chatting on your mobile during breaks from studying.

John Watkins Plaza

In front of the main entrance to the LSE Library is John Watkins Plaza, which is an excellent meeting point as it is one of the most spacious areas on campus. It also has ample seating and its own cafe with a green roof.

Lincoln's Inn Fields

Adjacent to the LSE campus is Lincoln's Inn Fields. Numerous park benches and open lawn space make this one of the best places to relax near campus and a lovely place for quiet study under a tree.

Lincoln's Inn Private Gardens

By courtesy of the Masters of the Bench this secluded garden is open to the public Monday – Friday from 12 noon – 2.30pm. The main entrance to the garden can be found at the south east corner of Lincoln's Inn Fields near to SAL.

LSE Faith Centre

The Faith Centre, found on the 2nd floor of SAW, is a unique space on campus. It is home to the LSE's diverse religious activities, transformational interfaith leadership programmes, wellbeing classes, and a reflective space for students away from the noise of campus life. You can find The Cave for meditation, male and female Islamic prayer rooms and a bookable space for all student faith societies.

The Faith Centre is open every day from 9.30am to 5.30pm, with your LSE student card needed for out of hours access. Ask at the Faith Centre reception for more details on our programmes.

LSE public square

Created as part of the Centre Building redevelopment scheme, this landscaped central plaza is at the heart of LSE. The pedestrianised square is used for School events and creates opportunities for social interactions and helps to enhance the biodiversity of the campus.

LSE roof terraces

Good weather and views across London and the campus can be enjoyed from our numerous roof terraces. Continuing the LSE tradition of using our roofscapes to their full potential, each terrace is landscaped and is provided with seating so you can sit back and relax with your friends. Please do not place additional furniture on these terraces as it gets damaged in the rain. Smoking is not permitted on any terrace.

LSE Sportsground

LSE has 23 acres of playing fields in New Malden, Surrey (a 22 minute train ride out of Waterloo).

Sporting amenities and facilities are available for hire by staff and students of the School and by external users when not in use by the Athletics Union. More information is available on the LSE Sportsground web page.

Marshall Building learning commons

Informal study space is provided on the ground floor and levels 1 and 2 with an array of furniture types to enable group and individual working, all with charging facilities.

There is a café on the ground floor, bench seating, armchairs, pods and windows that open onto the street. On levels 1 and 2 you will find circular seating for large groups and four-seater AV booths that allow groups to share work on large wall mounted screens as well as individual quiet spaces.

Music practice rooms

The music practice room adjoining the Shaw Library is currently closed due to the Old Building refurbishments (due to complete early 2024). During these works the music practice room in Lincoln Chambers can be used (no lift access). Three other dedicated music practice rooms are situated in the basement of Marshall Building. To use these rooms you need to be a member of the LSESU Music Society.

Peacock Theatre

Sadler's Wells Theatre organises most of the shows and events that are held at the Peacock Theatre, which in recent years have featured some of the most popular alternative shows in London. LSE students aged 16 - 30 can purchase £10.00 tickets through our Barclays Dance Pass scheme.

(If you are a registered user and are already logged into your Sadler's Wells account, please log out and return to this page in order to sign up to Barclays Dance Pass.)

Whether it's ballet, hip hop, contemporary dance or tap, our theatres are the place to see inspiring, entertaining and outright stunning dance in the UK.

It's totally free to join, you don't pay transaction fees and we've got your mates covered too, bring a friend aged 16 – 30 for the same price.

PhD Academy

Situated on 4th floor of Lionel Robbins Building this is a dedicated space and services hub for doctoral candidates studying at LSE (LSE swipe card access). In addition it contains a kitchen, eating area and soft seating.

Post Graduate common room

There is a Postgraduate common room on the lower ground floor of Sir Arthur Lewis Building with microwave facilities (LSE swipe card access).

Saw Swee Hock Student Centre

Home to the Students' Union, LSE Careers and other services. The SU office can be found on the third floor where the reception team and SU staff can help with sports clubs, student societies, campaigns and the Advice Service. The media centre, situated on the second floor, brings all SU media into one space including The Beaver, Pulse Radio, LooSE TV and Clare Market Review. The building also includes the Gym, Dance Studio and Denning Learning Café run by the SU, with ample seating and social spaces to relax.

Sir Arthur Lewis Building

You will find a number of break out spaces located throughout the basement, lower ground and ground floors which can be used by students to work or meet socially and relax. There is a Postgraduate common room on the lower ground floor (LSE swipe card access).

The Shaw Library (LSE Founders' Room) – currently no access, due to re-open early 2024

Located on the 6th floor of the Old Building, this is a comfortably furnished common room and library for all members of the School. It has a pleasant ambience and is a haven of retreat for many (although it is not intended for serious study by students). The Shaw Library is regularly used for School functions.

The stock can be borrowed by LSE staff and students: up to four items may be loaned for up to three weeks. Newspapers and serials are available for reading in the Library. It is also the venue of the School's long standing free lunchtime recitals and concerts series. Music is an important part of LSE life. The School has its own orchestra and choir: both are conducted by professional musicians, rehearse weekly and give public performances at the end of the Autumn and Winter terms.

If you have any questions about the book collection in the Shaw Library, please email library.enquiries@lse.ac.uk

Students' Salon

This is a designated common room with hot water and microwave facilities for heating and eating your own food. Located on the ground floor of King's Chambers, the Salon is accessible between 8am and 10pm with swipe card access control.

Food and drink

There is a diverse range of catering facilities on the School campus offering food and drink for all tastes, dietary needs and budgets. Please discuss your requirements with the duty manager if you have allergies, a religious or lifestyle diet.

Wherever you decide to eat, please think about choosing healthy and sustainable options, reducing the amount of packaging from takeaways, and use the bins provided to correctly dispose of your waste.

Food Club loyalty app

Sign up to get a free hot drink and start collecting points each time you buy food and drink in LSE Catering outlets.

Visit the Food Club for everything you need to know about the Food Club loyalty scheme, including how to sign up and where to collect and spend your points.

LSE KeepCup

Reduce single use plastics by purchasing a reusable LSE KeepCup from any LSE Catering outlet and receive your first hot drink free.

Reusable collapsible water bottle

Eco friendly, reusable, collapsible water bottle available to purchase from LSE Catering outlets. The bottles are discounted to £3.50 while stocks last.

Holds up to 500ml of liquid but when empty can be squished up to fit into your pocket or handbag!

Coffee cup recycling bins

If you find yourself without your KeepCup and have to resort to a disposable cup you will be pleased to hear that we now have the facility to recycle them on campus – look out for the big orange bins in LSE catering outlets.

Accessibility at LSE

Accessible LSE

Lectures and seminars which are scheduled for inaccessible venues can be moved to accommodate students with mobility difficulties, Disability and Wellbeing Service will liaise with Timetabling and the academic department.

Accessible and gender neutral toilets, in addition to other accessible features are listed on the accessibility map.

AccessAble have produced detailed access guides to the LSE campus and residences, and route maps between key locations.

Please always give priority access to staff and students with disabilities when using lifts around campus.

Disability and Wellbeing Service

You can find out about the student Disability and Wellbeing Service here: Disability and Wellbeing Service.

DWS can put in place support and recommend adjustments to the learning and teaching environment which will help remove barriers to disabled students.

Contact: 020 7955 7567 or email: disability-wellbeing@lse.ac.uk

Equity, diversity and inclusion

The School's overall work on equity, diversity and inclusion (EDI) is led by LSE's EDI Office lse.ac.uk/edi

LSE supports diversity, inclusiveness, equal access, equitable treatment and multicultural understanding.

AccessAble have produced detailed access guides to the LSE campus and residences and route maps between key locations. These are available at accessable.co.uk/london-school-of-economics

IT support for disabled students

LSE Faith Centre

The Faith Centre, found on the 2nd floor of SAW, is a unique space on campus, home to the LSE's diverse religious activities, transformational interfaith leadership programmes, wellbeing classes, and a reflective space for all staff and students away from the noise of campus life. You can find The Cave for meditation, male and female Islamic prayer and washrooms and a bookable space for all student faith societies. Jummah prayers are held on Fridays in the Venue, in the basement of SAW. The Faith Centre team is working to make the LSE campus fully faith-inclusive and we have a team of associate chaplains available to speak confidentially on any issue arising during your time at LSE regardless of faith or belief.

The Faith Centre is open every day from 9.30am to 5.30pm, with your LSE staff or student card needed for out of hours access. More information on what is going on in the Faith Centre and religious provision at LSE can be found online at lse.ac.uk/faithcentre and any questions can be emailed to faithcentre@lse.ac.uk or just ask at the Faith Centre reception.

Student Mental Health and Wellbeing at LSE

The Student Wellbeing Service offers counselling, support and confidential advice to students having mental health difficulties.

Mental Health Advisers, Wellbeing Advisers, and Counsellors work across the Student Wellbeing Service, and specialise in helping manage mental health crises, as well as supporting students with long term mental health difficulties. For more information contact disability-wellbeing@lse.ac.uk (020 7955 7767) or visit Pethick Lawrence House 4.02 (enter via Fawcett House).

Study space and IT facilities

Studying in the Library

The first port of call for a place to study on campus is LSE Library. Spaces and rooms are available throughout the building – primarily at its quieter perimeters. The majority of the Library's 2,500 study places are offered on a first-come first-served basis but some spaces are bookable all year round. The Library has clearly marked coloured zonal study areas which allow users to work in the way that suits them best, depending on whether they would like to work in silent or group study working areas.

Group study spaces

A variety of group study areas are available throughout the School for LSE students to undertake group work. Some are bookable whilst others are available on an open access basis, see the chart on page 57 for locations and how to book. The open access rooms are not available for pre-booking, but students are encouraged to use them for studying whenever they are free.

Informal learning spaces

You will find informal study spaces within most campus buildings, some are bigger and more popular, others are smaller and frequented less often, which is ideal for quiet study. Centre Building offers a variety of study spaces, providing opportunities for students to engage in different modes of informal collaborative working, offering the ability to learn and create in a fun and inspiring way.

On the ground floor there are quiet study spaces for individual work and small group huddles, nooks suitable for brainstorming ideas and casual meetings further away from the main circulation areas, where you are less likely to be disturbed. Larger group work and more transient interactions are encouraged in the open plan spaces nearer to the cafe and main entrance.

The 1st and 2nd floors offer group working areas, student break out and study zones, which you may find are quieter than the ground floor areas.

Transforming lost space is a critical part of our approach to creating innovative and inspirational learning spaces for the students at LSE.

There are a number of spaces in CLM central stairwell alcoves (floors 2-5) providing students with unique, creative and innovative areas to study, collaborate, communicate and think.

Comfortable, high backed couches with homely cushions are supported by laptop desks and power to encourage students to engage in conversation or study alone in the corridors outside the 4th floor computer rooms in FAW.

The entrance of KSW has zoned bench and lounge seating, plants, bright colours and power.

In SAL there are a number of break out spaces located throughout the basement, lower ground and ground floors which can be used by students to work or meet socially and relax.

MAR has lots of informal study spaces on the ground floor and levels 1 and 2, with an array of furniture types to enable group and individual working, all with charging facilities.

CKK offers several high quality spaces for informal study and social interaction. More soft seating can be found in the lower ground lobby and on the two mezzanine levels.

Find Recharge spaces with warm lighting, power and WiFi on the ground, 1st, 2nd and 3rd floor at the rear of OLD.

The Peacock Theatre's Dress Circle Bar has comfortable seating and study alcoves, power and WiFi and is available most weekdays (9am – 5pm) during term time – please check with staff in the foyer.

SAW has space to study or relax within the Denning Cafe on 1st floor or the Weston Cafe/roof terrace on 6th floor.

Computer facilities for students

There are over 1,000 PCs available for students to use on campus, some of which are available 24 hours a day. Additional PCs and printing facilities for students with disabilities are available in the Library and PC areas on campus. For full details please visit DTS webpages.

iRoam laptops

iRoam, the Macbook Air laptop loan service, allows students to borrow a fully charged laptop for use within the Library building without needing to book in advance. The laptops provide access to h: space, Office software and the internet. Visit lse.ac.uk/iroam for more details.

Computer classrooms

There are a number of computer classrooms equipped with PCs across campus that are used for class teaching and IT skills training. They are open to any member of the School for their individual work at other times. If you are in a computer room that is required for a class, please leave the room as quickly as possible. If a class is in progress please do not enter unless you are a member of that class.

Getting help

If you have an IT issue, query or would like to request a new service, please contact Tech Support:

- By phone: 0207 107 5000 | x5000 (24hrs)
- By email: tech.support@lse.ac.uk
- In person: Tech Support Centre, Library 1st Floor.

You can also visit the Laptop Surgery for support with personal laptops and mobiles.

For details of the face to face services available in the Tech Support Centre, including opening times, please visit DTS webpages.

Printing

In line with the School's sustainability strategy, please think before you print! Find out how to become digital smart here. However, if you do need to print there are printers in all the student PC areas and some computer rooms. All printing is double-sided by default. There is a charge of 3.5p per A4 side for mono printing and 10p per A4 side for colour printing. To print on any of the student printers at LSE, you will need credit on your printing account. You can add credit in the following ways:

- online via mobileprint.lse.ac.uk
- with cash using one of the value loaders in the Library

You can also print to an LSE printer using your own computer or mobile device.

Student printer locations on campus can be found here.

Printing and scanning advice can be found here.

WiFi

eduroam is the recommended wireless network (WiFi) in use at LSE which allows secure connectivity across campus and in halls of residence. To get connected enable WiFi, scan and select eduroam and then log in using your LSE email address and network password.

For more information about technology services at LSE, please visit DTS webpages.

LSE Faith Centre

LSE Faith Centre is committed to creating an inclusive campus for students and staff of all faiths and none. Whether you want to use our space to worship, learn more about the diverse backgrounds and faith traditions of your fellow students, or participate in a variety of wellbeing activities, there's something for everyone at the Faith Centre.

Faith provision on campus

We support students of faith and faith societies in their religious observance and requirements on campus, in the classroom and beyond The Faith Centre spaces include Islamic prayer rooms and ablution facilities, The Cave for quiet reflection or meditation, and the Desert Room, a multi-purpose space for events, worship, and meetings.

Leadership programmes

We run extra-curricular programmes for all students. Our three modules explore the intersection of religion and critical challenges in today's world, and facilitate exploratory intersectional dialogue spaces that provide tools that support our students to discuss difficult and challenging topics to prepare them for life beyond the university. Our programme includes courses on religious imaginations, climate change, and conflict transformation. Find out more about our current Beecken Faith and Leadership programme here.

Safe reporting

We are a safe point of contact for students to report religious-based incidents of discrimination and harm to help keep our community safe. You can do this via email or come directly to speak confidentially with our team in the Faith Centre office on 2nd Floor, SAW.

LSE LIFE

LSE LIFE is the place to come to develop the skills you'll need to reach your goals at LSE – whether it concerns your academic work or other personal or professional pursuits. We are here to help you find your own ways to study and learn, think about where your studies might lead you, and make the most of your time at LSE.

We offer

- guidance and hands-on practice of the key skills you'll need to do well at LSE: effective reading, academic writing and critical thinking.
- workshops related to how to adapt to new or difficult situations, including development of skills for leadership, study/work/life balance, and preparing for the working world.
- a place to meet and work together with your peers on interdisciplinary group projects and research.
- support in making the transition to (or back to) university life.
- advice and practice on working in study groups and on cross-cultural communication and teamwork.
- ideas and inspiration about academic pursuits and pathways into professional life.

and much more ...

LSE LIFE is located on the ground floor of the Library and is your first port of call to discover what is available for you to take your learning beyond the classroom. Find out more at our website, where you can book your place on a workshop, check out our online resources on Moodle, or book a one-to-one appointment to speak with an LSE LIFE study adviser. Or just drop by at our reception desk on the ground floor of the Library.

LSE Volunteer Centre

Volunteering is a fantastic opportunity to make a difference to our community, while developing skills and meeting new people. The LSE Volunteer Centre is here to inspire and empower you to volunteer for causes that you are passionate about during your studies.

Meet Charities

Join us at the LSE Volunteering Fair at the beginning of Autumn Term to find out how you can make a difference and hear from organisations looking to recruit LSE students as volunteers. Charity Tuesdays are another great way to meet our partners as we invite a different charity onto campus to discuss their volunteering opportunities every week.

Volunteering opportunities

We work with organisations to advertise volunteering opportunities across London, the UK and internationally. Whether you are passionate about the environment or human rights, or ready to change the world through campaigning, we will have an opportunity for you on CareerHub. For our weekly Volunteer Opportunities of the Week email, change your preferences on CareerHub to include volunteering!

Join our Community Engagement Programme to complete a consultancy challenge for one of our charity partners. We know students are busy and we run a one-off volunteering programme to help you fit volunteering around your studies.

Information and Advice

Come along to our seminars and workshops to find out more about volunteering and how you can get involved. Our blog hosts a wealth of information, reflections and discussion pieces on volunteering written by students, staff and our charity partners. We also run one-to-one appointments to discuss all things volunteering.

Find out more at Ise.ac.uk/volunteercentre or by following @LSEVolunteering.

Accommodation and LSE Residences

Residential Services Office - student accommodation

The LSE Residential Services Office allocates over 4,000 places across several central London locations. This gives students unique access to a broad variety of rooms to suit different preferences, needs and budgets. Directions to halls of residence and details on prices and room types are available here. Information for residents can be found here.

Opening times: Monday - Friday, 9am - 5.30pm

Contact: 020 7955 7531

For more information: Ise.ac.uk/student-life/accommodation/contact-us

Faculty accommodation

LSE Residential Services offer a range of accommodation for staff and visitors affiliated to the School. Available both on campus and in halls of residence, our rooms, studios and apartments are an ideal base for new and visiting staff, conference delegates and external speakers. For more information, contact 020 7955 7023 or visit our website.

LSE Vacations – a great alternative to London hotels

Our halls of residence offer good quality, centrally located accommodation to the general public during the winter, spring and summer vacations. A small number of rooms are available all year round. Staff, students and alumni receive a 20 per cent discount, ideal for friends and family coming to visit you in London. For more information or to book contact 020 3437 0050 or visit www.lsevacations.co.uk

Planning and booking events

Room bookings

LSE Students' Union Societies and Clubs can apply for room booking privileges to book LSE rooms for their events. Once the Society/Club is fully registered with the Students' Union up to three individual committee officers can complete the School Room Bookings Training Module to gain room booking privileges.

Except for the music practice rooms, which are only bookable by Music Society members, individual LSE students cannot make room bookings. If you want to make room bookings for an academic purpose you will need to approach a member of staff in your department and ask if they can make a booking on your behalf.

Events in SAW

The Students' Union is responsible for room bookings in SAW. The basement social space "The Venue" holds up to 820 people; The Three Tuns pub can welcome 250 people and the 6th floor Weston Café can accommodate 150. The spaces can be booked for events by students, societies, LSE staff and external hirers. For all event enquiries in SAW, please contact su.events@lse.ac.uk and your email will be sent on to the bookings team.

Public events

LSE students and staff are encouraged and welcome to attend the many public events that the School organises each academic year featuring high profile speakers from across the world. The events programme attracts thousands of people to LSE every term with details available from Lse.ac.uk/events – do take some time to check out what is coming up so you don't miss out! Most of our events are now available for download as podcasts and videos at Lse.ac.uk/lse-player, attracting audiences from across the world. As well as public events the School has a programme of arts and music events, more details of these can be found at Ise.ac.uk/arts. Watch out also for the LSE Festival, which normally takes place in the Winter Term, information about previous festivals and next years will be available from Ise.ac.uk/festival. LSE also hosts a series of lunchtime concerts which happen each Thursday in the Shaw Library, 6th floor, OLD at 1.05pm in the Autumn and Winter Term. More information can be found at Ise.ac.uk/music

Poster policy

There are notice boards in the main entrances of most campus buildings and departments/research centres. Use of these notice boards should be sanctioned by the relevant Students' Union societies/academic department/ research centre and posters must be securely fastened to boards to prevent fire spread. We are trying to prevent fly posting to keep the campus tidy and therefore will remove posters not displayed in approved areas. With agreement of the Director of Facilities Management (a.blair1@lse.ac.uk) exemption can be given in the case of way-finding posters for School events eg, LSE Open Day, visit days etc. All posters should include the LSE logo and a box stating the duration of display for the poster – maximum one month. Those failing to meet these requirements will be removed.

Off campus events

Are you arranging an event for LSE students or your society? Why not consider hosting it at the LSE Sportsground at Berrylands? It is only a 22 minute train journey from Waterloo. Set in 23 acres of countryside, the pavilion boasts a dining hall with balcony and veranda and kitchen. Perfect for team building and fund raising events with a sporting theme (external catering can be arranged). See page 69 for contact details.
