FAQs

Clearing up some common questions! If your query isn't answered here, please drop an email to selife.london@lse.ac.uk and we will do our best to assist you.

Q. Do I already need to know other attendees to join a trip?

Not at all! LIFE in London is a great way to meet new people. Many participants come on their own and leave having made new friends. You're always welcome, whether you come alone or with a group.

Q. Is there really no cost involved?

Yes, all LIFE in London events are completely FREE for LSE students to book. However, commuting costs or purchases made by the attendee at the event are paid for by the attendee.

Q. Who can join a LIFE in London trip?

All current LSE students are welcome to participate in LIFE in London events.

Q. Can I suggest a trip idea?

Absolutely! We'd love to hear your ideas. Speak to any of our Student Facilitators if you spot them campus/ on a trips, or drop an email to lselife.london@lse.ac.uk.

Q. The event is sold out. What can I do?

If an event is sold out, you can join the waitlist and will be able secure a spot in case it becomes available. Due to high demand, our trips usually fill up fast. However, do not worry as we host trips every week during term time and also several times during non term time. The best way to keep up to date is to check the LSE LIFE Events Page regularly.

Q. Can I meet you at the event location?

Yes! All our trips have two meeting points – one at LSE, in case you want to head over to the venue together, and one directly at the venue itself. You will receive these details once you book onto the event.

Q. Can I bring a friend to an LiL event if they don't have a ticket?

Only LSE students are allowed on LiL trips so if your friend is an LSE student you are welcome to bring them but please note that we can not guarantee tickets or entry for the same. If there is a no-show on the day, they can take that place but there is no guarantee that this will be the case.

Q. I cannot attend any more, can you cancel my booking?

Yes we can. Please let us know if you cannot attend ASAP so we can offer your place to another student on the waitlist.

Q. I am running late, am I able to join you at a later time?

Whether you can join us late will depend on the nature of the event you have booked onto. For example, if it is a group ticket with a specified entry time, this may not be possible. Please contact us if you are running late, and we can advise on the best option.

Q. I have an accessibility concern – can this be accommodated?

Wherever possible we work to ensure everyone can join our LIFE in London trips. If you have an accessibility concern, please get in touch and we can explore the options together!

Q. Can a friend collect my ticket?

Yes, a friend can collect your ticket on your behalf. If this is the case please, let us know ASAP and send us your friend's name and LSE email address so we can take a note of this.
