THE BACHELOR OF ARTS AT SCIENCES PO
One degree, countless opportunities

A curriculum open to non French-speaking students
Sciences Po is also open to non French-speaking students, who may enrol in one of the English-language programmes offered in Le Havre, Menton and Reims. They learn French while studying at Sciences Po.

Develop critical thinking skills
Students take full advantage of formal instruction thanks to interactive classes. This format fosters skills such as public speaking, debate and critical thinking. The overarching goal is to provide students with all the tools they need to understand the world.

Learn from academics and practitioners
Courses at Sciences Po are taught by renowned academics and professionals working in the public and private sectors. The knowledge they transmit is thus nurtured by innovative research in the social sciences, while remaining rooted in reality.

SCIENCES PO EXCHANGE PROGRAMME
Our 7 campuses of the Undergraduate College host more than 1,200 students each year from Sciences Po’s 470 partner universities around the world, for a semester or an academic year.

- Two 12 week semesters (September to December and January to May)

- Undergraduate and graduate exchange students may study uniquely in French or English, or in both languages simultaneously
SCIENCES PO EXCHANGE PROGRAMME: OUR ACADEMIC OFFER

Undergraduate courses are offered in six disciplines: Economics, History, Law, Political Humanities, Sociology, and Political Science (including International Relations).

We have no compulsory major or specific programme for exchange students.

Types of courses:
- Lecture: 60 to 500 students in a lecture theatre, 2 or 3 hours per week, general theme with fundamental concepts
  Ex: introduction to public international law, comparative politics, gender and sociology, war, peace and the sovereign state
- Seminar: 20 to 60 students, 2 hours a week, more specialized content
  Ex: agriculture, food and globalization; International Humanitarian Law, the Holocaust in History, Belts and Roads: China in Africa;
- Methodology workshop: 20 to 22 students, 2 hours a week, group reflection
  Ex: research methods in technology and society, introduction to econometrics, “mind the map” (cartography)
- Language course: 2 hours per week
- Artistic workshop: 2 hours a week, artistic approach of issues, concepts of the humanities and social sciences – taught in French
SCIENCES PO EXCHANGE PROGRAMME: COURSE REGISTRATION

Exchange students may register for between 5 ECTS credits (minimum) and 30 ECTS credits (maximum) per semester.

Courses registration
Course registration is done online in July and January.
Each type of course is worth a specific number of ECTS credits:
- Lecture: 10

Students are asked to take a full course load of five courses including lecture course. Students must enrol for 30 ECTS per semester and pass at least 20 ECTS.
THE EXCHANGE PROGRAMME
STEP BY STEP
THE SCIENCES PO EXCHANGE PROGRAMME
STEP BY STEP

1. Sciences Po requires its partners to nominate online the students they have selected
2. Nomination takes place in early April and September/October
3. Once nominated by your home university, you receive an email inviting you to create an account and complete and submit your application form online
4. A confirmation of acceptance is sent to you and your university by email
5. You receive a Sciences Po username and password to activate your email address and access to your online student account
COST OF STUDIES AND LIVING

- Exchange students pay their tuition fees to their home university, not to Sciences Po

- Cost of living may vary from a campus to another:
