

Resources for International Students

- UKCISA (UK Council for International Student Affairs)

UK's national advisory body serving international students.

- www.ish.org.uk

International Student House offers a wide-range of accommodation, events, entertainment and networking possibilities for international students living in London. Services include gym, welfare and scholarships, free and confidential service regarding immigration, work, housing, finance etc

- www.visitlondon.com

An excellent website with well laid-out and extensive information on London. Includes special offers, travel, what's on in London, accommodation, theatre, music, special events.

- www.virtualtourist.com

Another useful website with tips from visitors and locals on making the most of time spent in any destination.

- www.tfl.gov.uk

London transport's official website. Gives useful information especially up-to-date bulletins of transport delays and an online journey planner – i.e. London underground, British rail, bus service etc

- www.hostuk.org.uk

A UK organisation offering international students free visits and/or holiday stays in British family homes.

- www.moneysavingexpert.com

A website dedicated to finding the cheapest 'deals' for a large range of services. It includes information about the cheapest ways of calling abroad. Also includes health, insurance, travel etc

- www.exchangestud.meetup.com/

Meet other International Students from universities, colleges or language schools in the London area for monthly meetings and social events.

- The LSE Chaplaincy

Should be able to put you in touch with a local church, mosque, synagogue, or temple, and there are several religious student societies.

- SU.International@lse.ac.uk

The Students' Union has an international student's officer who is responsible within the Union for ensuring the welfare and representation of international students.

- Timeout London

A useful website and weekly magazine for shopping and entertainment of all kinds.

- LSE Language Centre

Offers a range learning support and programmes including language for academic purposes.

Suggested Reading

- Watching the English: The Hidden rules of English Behaviour
by Kate Fox, Publisher: Nicholas Brealey Publishing