

Education Forum Autumn Term 2025

Shaping tomorrow's learning

Wednesday 3 December, 2-4pm – CBG.G.01 - LSE Lecture Theatre and Zoom

Time	Session	Speakers
2-2.15pm	Welcome and Introduction	Professor Emma McCoy, Vice President and Pro-Vice Chancellor (Education) and Dr Claire Gordon, Director, LSE Eden Centre for Education Enhancement
Session 1: Generative AI and Education
2.15-2.30pm	Micro-presentations	Lourdes Hernandez-Martin, Language Centre Dr Haider Ali, Extended Education
2.30-2.45pm	Provocations: How do we prepare students to work effectively, ethically and creatively with AI? What skills become more important when AI can draft, analyse, and summarise? How do we maintain academic integrity while embracing new tools?
Session 2: Learning Spaces
2.45-3.00pm	Micro-presentations	Dr Carrie Friese, Sociology Dr Yally Avrahampour, Management
3-3.15pm	Provocations: What does the classroom of 2030 look like? How do we balance digital and physical presence? How can spaces foster critical thinking, active and experiential learning and belonging?
Session 3: Careers Readiness
3.15-3.30pm	Micro-presentations	Prof Stuart Gordon, International Development and Nedelin Velikov, Digital Skills Lab Lewis Humphreys, LSE Careers
3.30-3.45pm	Provocations: How do we embed careers readiness without compromising academic rigour? What does 'career ready' mean in an unpredictable job market? Should LSE education prepare students for their first job or their fifth career pivot?
3.45-4pm	Closing reflections	Dr Claire Gordon, Director, LSE Eden Centre for Education Enhancement