

LSE Manager Programme: Self-access version

This version of the programme is designed purely for study on your own, in your own time. The programme contains 12-14 hours of self-study materials. We'd recommend that anyone completing the course in this way, complete it over a period of several months to ensure opportunities for self-reflection and application to practice.

Programme units:

- Introduction and overview - 20 mins
- Achieving results through people & the behaviours of a coaching manager - 45mins
- Developing people and being a compassionate leader - 25 mins
- The behaviours of an inclusive manager - 50 mins
- LSE people policy and procedures -120 mins
- Leading with emotional intelligence - 60 mins
- Making the most of CDRs as an LSE people manager – 75 mins
- The secrets of skilled delegation - 90 mins
- Managing teams and fostering positive cultures - 150 mins
- Personal and professional development planning - 30 mins

You can access the programme on MyStaffDevelopment at any time.