LSE Fee Level Approval Cycle

The Table of Fees is published on the LSE website (ahead of the next Admissions cycle).

Student Numbers and Fees (SNAF) Group meets three times a year to consider fee levels and make recommendations to the Academic Planning and Resources Committee (APRC). (Nov, Jan, Mar)

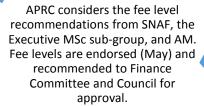

Council considers, approves and signs off fee levels (June) around 15 months in advance of the academic year that the fee levels relate to.

Fee level approval cycle

Annual Monitoring (AM) of Academic Departments takes place. New programmes including fee levels are put forward to the Senior Management Committee. (Michaelmas Term each year)

Finance Committee endorses fees in relation to the overall financial position of the School

The Executive MSc subgroup meets (Dec/Jan) to discuss fee levels for executive programmes. Recommendations are put forward to APRC for endorsement.