2027/28 Fee Levels

New entrants are classified as having either Home or Overseas fee status. EU students who are new entrants to LSE programmes in 2027/28 will be classified as having Overseas fee status unless they fulfil UK immigration criteria. For further information on the criteria (including immigration criteria) please refer to these webpages:

UK Government - Studying in the UK: Guidance for EU Students

UK Council for International Student Affairs - Find your fee status

LSE - Fee Status Classification

The fees quoted are for one year of study in 2027/28 only, unless stated otherwise. If the duration of your programme is more than one year you must check information on fees payable in future years, e.g. the 2028/29 Table of Fees. Fees are paid in each academic year for which you are enrolled and normally rise each year, unless stated otherwise. LSE reserves the right to vary, including increase, tuition fees each year as set out in the Conditions of Registration and Enrolment. Some fees are provisional (e.g. for the second year of two-year programmes and Double Degrees) and this will be indicated until such time that fees are confirmed.

The School chooses to set its Home undergraduate programme fees in line with the maximum fee set by the UK government. This means the fee will be subject to change if the government increases the fee for the current or subsequent years.

Further information about the fee structures for research programmes can be found at the end of this document in "MPhil/ PhD Full-Time Fee Structure", and should be read alongside the fee levels listed below.

If your programme includes a period of study at another institution, the fees for that period will be set by that institution and payable there.

If your programme involves more than one year of study at LSE, the new fee levels for your second and succeeding years will be payable in due course.

Further information relating to fee levels can be found in the School's Tuition Fees Policy.

Undergraduate Repeat Fees [4]	Per half unit	Per full unit
Repeat Fees	£628	£1,256

1. The School chooses to set its fee for Home undergraduates at the maximum level set by the UK government. The fee for 2027/28 entry was confirmed in November 2025 by the government but has not yet been published via the Office for Students (OfS) website so may still be subject to change. The fee will remain provisional until published by the OfS.

2. Overseas undergraduates pay a fee according to the tier of their programme. This fee is fixed based on the year of entry, so students will pay the same amount each year for the duration of their programme (unless they transfer programme).

3. Two undergraduate programmes, the BSc International Relations and Chinese and the BSc Language, Culture and Society, include a compulsory study year abroad. The 4-year BSc Actuarial Science includes a placement year. Information on the fees charged for study abroad and placement years can be found on the main Fees webpage at: https://info.lse.ac.uk/staff/divisions/Planning-Division/Table-of-Fees

4. Undergraduate programmes are not available on a part time basis. The fees shown relate to full time Home and Overseas fee paying students who are allowed to repeat tuition for part of their programme of study by the Repeat Teaching Panel (see https://info.lse.ac.uk/current-students/services/repeat-teaching). The total fee to be paid is dependent on the number of units repeated up to a maximum fee of £5,024. The fee is linked to the Home undergraduate full time fee. The repeat fee is provisional until the Home full time fee has been published by the OfS for 2027 entry.

12. The LSE chooses to set its Home postgraduate research fee in line with the level set by the UK Research Councils. The fee amount listed is provisional until the fee is confirmed by the Research Councils in February 2027.

13. The part time fee profile reflects un-interrupted part time study from the point of initial enrolment. Where mode of study changes are approved mid-programme, students' fee status will be updated accordingly. Fees for part time study are based on half the full time fee and increase in each year of enrolment. The part time Home fee is provisional until the full time fee is confirmed by the Research Councils in February 2027.

14. The fee for Visiting Research Students is calculated on a weekly basis.

MPHIL/ PHD FULL-TIME FEE STRUCTURE

The tuition fee structure for full-time MPhil/PhD programmes can be found in Table 1. The tuition fee for the first three years of study will be subject to inflationary increases in each year. In the fourth year, no fee will be charged. If the School grants an extension to the enrolment period beyond the fourth year of study, then the full research fee will be charged for that year and any subsequent years, i.e. from the fifth year onwards students will recommence paying fees.

Table 1 – MPhil/PhD fee structure

	Home/EU	Overseas
MPhil/PhD – Year 1	£ Full research fee payable	£ Full research fee payable
MPhil/PhD – Year 2	£ Full research fee payable	£ Full research fee payable
MPhil/PhD – Year 3	£ Full research fee payable	£ Full research fee payable
MPhil/PhD – Year 4	£0 fee	£0 fee
Enrolment beyond Year 4	£ Full research fee payable	£ Full research fee payable

Tuition fees are reviewed annually and are subject to change. The relevant Table of Fees should be checked for the fee amount each year, e.g., for a student starting in 2027/28 the 2027/28 Table of Fees should be checked for fees payable in year 1, the 2028/29 Table of Fees should be checked for fees payable in year 2, and so on. The exact fees charged to each research student will consider any periods of interruption, changes in mode and other relevant factors. For example, a proportion of the fee will be charged where special arrangements have been agreed for part-time study.

The maximum length of enrolment is four years for full-time research students. Exceptionally, the Research Degrees Subcommittee Chair may permit a student to continue to enrol beyond the maximum length of their programme. Students permitted to enter year 5 will be liable to pay the full fee amount for each further year of study plus any inflationary increase. The only exceptions are:

- Students who have submitted their thesis, and have been examined, but have a significant period of revisions to make, i.e., 12 months, may be allowed to re-enrol with a zero fee while making the revisions.
- Exceptionally, MPhil/PhD and MRes/PhD students with My Adjustments plan may be permitted to enrol beyond the maximum period of study at a zero fee. These cases will be considered individually by the Chair of the Research Degrees Subcommittee as part of the extension application process.

MRES/PHD FEE STRUCTURES

The structure of MRes/PhD programmes at the School differs from the standard MPhil/PhD structure both in terms of programme length and the fees charged.

There are three different MRes/PhD structures operating at the School:

MRES/PHD 1 + 4 PROGRAMME

An initial MRes year followed by a four-year PhD programme. This structure applies to students entering with a taught postgraduate qualification on the following MRes/PhD programmes:

MRes/PhD Anthropology
MRes/PhD International Development
MRes/PhD Political Science
MRes/PhD Quantitative Economic History

The tuition fee structure for MRes/PhD 1 + 4 programmes can be found in Table 2. Students entering on to these programmes will be charged a full research fee for the MRes year, a full research fee for the first three years of their PhD and a zero fee for the remaining PhD year. If the School grants an extension to the enrolment period beyond the fourth year of PhD study, then the full research fee will be charged. Where fees are charged, they will increase by inflation each year. Tuition fees are reviewed annually and are subject to change. The relevant Table of Fees should be checked for the fee amount each year, e.g., for a student starting in 2027/28 the 2027/28 Table of Fees should be checked for fees payable in year 1, the 2028/29 Table of Fees should be checked for fees payable in year 2, and so on. Exceptions may apply relating to thesis revisions and disability as detailed in the MPhil/PhD section.

Students entering on to these programmes will be charged a full research fee for both years of the MRes, the full research fee for the first three years of their PhD and a zero fee for the remaining PhD year. If the School grants an extension to the enrolment period beyond the fourth year of PhD study, then the full research fee will be charged. Where fees are charged, they will increase by inflation each year. Tuition fees are reviewed annually and are subject to change.
