Role overview

Role title: Campus Enrolment Queue Organiser

Team: Campus Enrolment

Summary: to provide a friendly welcome to new students at the beginning of the academic year. As part of a team, you will be required to manage Campus Enrolment queues across different areas. This is a busy role dealing with many students each day. A key part of the role is to ensure that students are joining the queue only when they need to, that they have the correct documents with them, and they are ready to complete the Campus Enrolment process. You will also be expected to assist in maintaining the security of LSE's premises, students, and staff.

Benefits

- Hourly pay at £17.46
  - Temporary employment – no need to commit long term
  - Flexible employment – state your availability around any pre-existing commitments
  - Full training provided
  - Experience of working in a customer service focused environment
  - Experience of working in a fast-paced environment where attention to detail is vital
  - Job satisfaction - you'll make a difference to new students' arrival experience, help them settle into university life and create a sense of community

Personal development

This role will help you to develop in the following areas:

- Service delivery
  - Customer service
  - Verbal Communication
  - Self-management
  - Team working

Standards required

  - High standards of punctuality and reliability
  - Always remain alert
  - Uphold the School's Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion commitments
  - Not be under the influence of alcohol or intoxicating substances whilst on shift
  - No smoking, reading or use of mobile devices whilst on shift

You will need to

- Attend a compulsory training session
- Be prepared to spend your shift positioned at one of the Campus Enrolment areas (some areas may get cold at times)
- Be mobile and responsive to navigate a fast-paced environment
- Be confident enforcing rules surrounding session times and documentation, which may involve turning away students and asking them to return at another time
- Welcome and support new students in a friendly and approachable manner
- Provide a reassuring presence for new students and their family members
- Signpost students to expert sources of information and advice
- Offer knowledge of School services and answers to frequently asked questions
- Provide directions to locations of services
- Act as an ambassador for LSE
- Create an inclusive environment, respect diversity, and promote equal opportunities
- Any other duties as required by Campus Enrolment Managers

This role also requires you to

- Organise the queues in Campus Enrolment venues which requires you to always remain fully alert
- Maintain a standard of confidentiality as you may be exposed to official student documentation/information
- Checking documents to ensure that students only join the queue when they are supposed to and to ensure that they have the correct documents with them
- Keep the queue moving by effectively communicating and liaising with other staff at Campus Enrolment
- Ensure students are queuing safely, in line with all School requirements – i.e., ensuring that entrances/exits are not blocked
- Work with LSE Security to be aware of and report potential security risks
- Know when to escalate issues to an Enrolment Manager
