

Our International Strategy for LSE

A photograph of a modern university courtyard. In the center, a large, colorful globe sculpture sits on a white base. The courtyard is paved and features several black planters with green plants. In the background, there are several buildings: a brick building with a large window, a white building with a grid pattern, and a grey building with large windows. The scene is brightly lit, suggesting a sunny day.

LSE is international – Building on our success

(2023 data)

8,223 Overseas students from over 140 nationalities in 2022/23.

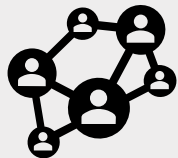

TRIUM Global Executive MBA - with NYU Stern and HEC Paris.

47% of our faculty are from outside the UK and our researchers collaborate with colleagues from at least 98 countries.

Unique portfolio of 22 international Double Master's degrees with 11 partners across 9 countries.

Member of the Open Society University Network (OSUN); Global Alliance of Universities on Climate (GAUC); Global Public Policy Network (GPPN); U7+ Alliance.

Over 6500 Summer School students from 111 nationalities & approximately 10,000 students enrolled internationally at over 30 Recognised Teaching Centres and through distance learning.

Founding member of CIVICA, an alliance of ten of Europe's leading social sciences institutions.

Undergraduate exchange partners include UC Berkeley, UCLA, UC San Diego, Sciences Po, Bocconi, Tokyo and Hong Kong.

Our Global Reach

North America

Double Master's degrees with Columbia University, USC Annenberg and University of Toronto.

Undergraduate exchange with UC Berkeley, UCLA, UC San Diego.

Developing Partnership with New York University

Europe

Double Master's degrees with Bocconi University, Sciences Po, Leipzig University and Hertie School.

Over 400 LSE students and 80 faculty have participated in CIVICA (European University of Social Science) activities since 2020.

Africa and Middle East

Double Master's degree with the University of Cape Town.

Leading research projects via the Firoz Lalji Institute for Africa and the Middle East Centre.

Asia Pacific

Double Master's degrees with National University of Singapore, Peking University and Fudan University.

LSE-Fudan Global Policy Hub.

Research collaborations with the Universities of Melbourne and Sydney, and Tsinghua University.

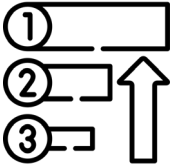

Undergraduate exchanges include the University of Tokyo, HKU and Yonsei University

Follow this link to explore the full range of collaborative projects that LSE is engaged in

International Strategy – Why now?

To be the leading social sciences university in the world with the greatest global impact

To set priorities which support our education and research

To provide coherence and coordination across the School

Academic partnerships

Philanthropy

International research

Alumni engagement

Global alliances

International recruitment

LSE international strategy encompasses:

Summer School

Executive Education

Careers

Distance learning

Corporate engagement

Global brand

International Strategy – Our Goals

1. Expand international experiences for students

- Undergraduate exchange placements
- Overseas internships and work placements

2. Global and diverse student recruitment

- Global international recruitment plan
- Digital recruitment infrastructure

3. Cultivate global research collaborations

- Impactful collaborative research with diverse partners
- Global Research Fund - Enabling environment for bottom-up collaborations

4. Cultivate LSE's global brand and profile

- Share on impact of LSE's research on societies around the world
- Global Partnership Development Fund – to enable further education collaborations

5. Diverse geographic priorities

- Develop strategic partnerships that are integrated across the School

6. Internal Coordination

- Creation of the International Strategy Board – with oversight and advice on our international engagement

For more details on LSE's engagement around the world:

- Global Academic Engagement
- Global collaborations database
- GO LSE (outbound mobility)
- General Course (inbound mobility)
- Double Degrees
- Executive Education
- Summer School
- University of London International Programmes
- Global Alumni networks