Yenching Fellowship Funding Sources

北京大学
PEKING UNIVERSITY

Yenching Academy of Peking University
北京大学燕京学堂

Yenching Fellowships are funded by Yenching Academy's endowment, as well as donations from both governmental and non-governmental sources.

China Scholarship Council (CSC)

The CSC is entrusted by the P.R.C. Ministry of Education, which provides funding for international students and scholars to study and conduct research at universities within the Chinese Mainland.

1. Chinese Government Scholarship (CGS): Available only to admitted Yenching Scholars, and awarded on a competitive basis.
2. Youth of Excellence Scheme of China Program Chinese Government Scholarship (Zhuoyue Scholarship): This program is designed for applicants with more professional experience and funds only one year of study in Beijing. Application can be submitted by shortlisted candidates, and admission into the Yenching Academy remains conditional until final acceptance of this particular scholarship.

Beijing Municipal Education Commission

The Beijing Government Scholarship is designed to fund outstanding international students for academic studies or scientific research at higher education institutions and research institutes in Beijing.

Bai Xian Asia Institute (BXAI)

The "Asian Future Leaders Scholarship Program" (AFLSP) provides scholarships for students from Asia to study away from their home country or region at any of BXAI's Partner Universities.

International Confucian Association (ICA)

The ICA scholarship program provides funding for international students enrolled in Master's programs in China, specifically supporting research in the fields of history, archaeology, philosophy, or religious studies.
