

The GenDen (LSE Generate's new Innovation Centre) is open from Thursday 22 October 2020 and can host up to 30 students and alumni at any one time. Places must be booked on a daily basis via the Resource Booker site for students (click on LSE Generate Kentish Town Coworking Space Desks) and via email if you are an alumnus with the subject title I'd like a GenDen desk, please!

Open from 10am – 6pm every weekday the GenDen is situated on the 1st floor of the building at the following address: 19-37 Highgate Road, Kentish Town, NW5 1JY.

The building is on the same side of the street as the O2 forum - when you see that building, keep going past the church and our building is the next on the left with the black shiny gate.

Directions to the GenDen via public transport:

The following transport lines have routes that pass near the GenDen:

Bus: 134, 214, 88

Train: OVERGROUND, THAMESLINK

Tube: NORTHERN

The GenDen is about 25 minutes door-to-door from LSE.

There will be an LSE Generate rep manning the space at all times.

The space offers up to 30 hotdesking spaces, 3 meeting rooms, several sofa spaces as well as a snug relax room. Toilets are available as well as tea, coffee and refreshments. Community members are encouraged to bring their own mugs.

All members must wear masks when moving around the coworking space and adhere to the LSE Generate Coworking Policy.

Any queries can be directed to generate@lse.ac.uk and for emergencies please contact 07971 539835.