

LSE Education Symposium 2022

Educating for the Common Good

Friday 10 June (10am-4.15pm)		MAR.1.04
10.05-10.15am	Claire Gordon (Director, LSE Eden Centre)	Welcome
10.15-11am	James Purnell (Vice-Chancellor, UAL)	Educating for the Common Good
11-11.45am	Martin Weller (Professor of Educational Technology, Open University)	Open Educational Resources
11.45am-1pm	Presentations on education at LSE	Presentations to be confirmed soon
1pm	LUNCH BREAK
2-2.30pm	Dilly Fung (Pro-Director for Education, LSE)	What does it mean to educate for the global common good?
2.30-3.15pm	Andrew Kirton (Lecturer in Sociology, University of Liverpool)	The 'Interchange' Initiative: Applied social research projects as an educational opportunity for the 'common good'
3.15-3.45pm	Practice sharing from LSE educators	3 x 10 min slots
3.45-4.15pm	LSE's Digital Library team (Maria Bell and Gillian Murphy)	Digital Public good and availability
4.15pm	CLOSE	