

Lent Term 2021 Education Forum

Designing Engaged Learning Opportunities at LSE

Wednesday 24 February, 2-4pm via Zoom

2:00-2:05 Welcome (Dilly Fung and Claire Gordon)

2:05-2:10 Opening our Conversation

- a) What has gone well so far this academic year?
- b) What has been challenging?

2:10-2:45 The View from the Departments

Contributors
Bradley Franks and colleagues	Department of Psychological and Behavioural Science
Lloyd Gruber	Department of International Development
Sara Camacho Felix	Department of Sociology/ International Inequalities Institute
Anastasia Kakou and Gelly Mitrodima	Department of Statistics

2:45-3:15 Student Panel: Perspectives on engaging learning during Curriculum Shift from the Student Education Panel

Contributors
Bali Birch-Lee (Chair)	LSESU Education Officer
Daniel Koo	Undergraduate student, Department of Law
Yiwen Wu	Undergraduate student, LSE Language Centre
Boluwatife Ajibola	Postgraduate student, Department of International Development
Sam Huntington	Postgraduate student, LSE European Institute
Gabbie Santos	Postgraduate Student, Department of Sociology

3:15-3:40 PGCertHE research into students' learning experience during Curriculum Shift 2020: Colleen McKenna (Eden Centre) with Matthias Tager (Department of Geography and Environment), Olivia Nantermoz-Benoit-Gonin (Department of International Relations) and Zeynep Kaparoglu (Department of Management).

3:40-3:55 Break-out room discussion – What have we learnt about education over the past year? What should LSE consider carrying forward into the future?

3:55-4:00 Concluding comments