

THE LONDON SCHOOL
OF ECONOMICS AND
POLITICAL SCIENCE ■

Education Forum (Michaelmas Term 2022)
Community and Student Voices at LSE
Tuesday 29 November (2-4pm)
CLM.2.02 (and online via Zoom)

- 2-2.05pm Forum opens
- 2.05-2.15pm Welcome
Emma McCoy (Pro-Director for Education)
Mark E Allinson (Director of Student Experience)
Claire Gordon (Director, Eden Centre)
- 2.15-2.35pm Warm up activity (small groups and plenary feedback)
- What do you understand by student voice?
  - Why does it matter to students?
  - What examples of good practice have you used in your own work, heard about/seen?
  - How can we do better at closing the loop on student feedback
- 2.40-2.55pm Research from the Eden Centre on student voice and community
Higher education identities
Akile Ahmet, Head, Inclusive Education and Sarah Garrone, Graduate Intern, Inclusive Education
Student partnership through the lens of our students
Lydia Halls, Student Partnership Coordinator and Dylan Stevens, Graduate Intern, Student Partnership
- 2.55-3pm BREAK
- 3-3.20pm Student voice: Learning from our community: Good practice from LSE Departments (to be announced)
- 3.20-3.55pm Building belonging in Higher Education (WonkHE report) Group activity focused on four dimensions of belonging
Mark E Allinson
- 3:55-4pm Closing remarks
- CLOSE

