

NSS Development Forum Programme, MacMillan Hall, Senate House

Hosted by Professor Dilly Fung, Pro-Director Education

Thursday 19 September, 09:45-13:00

09:45-10:00 Arrival and coffee

10:00-10:10 Welcome from Professor Dilly Fung Pro-Director Education 'LSE 2030, NSS and the LSE Context'

10:10-10:20 Brief overview of NSS data, Sarah Hagart, Business Information and Nyssa Lee-Woolf, TEF Coordinator

10:20-11:00 Presentations on NSS themes

- Assessment and feedback - Catherine Allerton, Department of Anthropology
- Research-rich education - Eric Schneider, Department of Economic History
- Learning opportunities – Martin Anthony, Department of Mathematics

11:00-11:25 Small group discussion and pooling our ideas -- mapping thematic activity

11:25-11:40 Coffee break

11:40-12:20 Presentations on NSS themes

- Student voice - Pik Liew, Department of Accounting
- Learning community - Camilla Kennedy Harper, Department of International Relations
- Academic support – Kitty Stewart, Department of Social Policy

12:20-12:45 Small group discussion and pooling our ideas -- mapping thematic activity

12:45-13:00 Sources of guidance and support at LSE