Part II - Redundancy

Purpose of Part II

8. This Part enables the Standing Committee, as the appropriate body, to dismiss any member of the academic staff by reason of redundancy.

BYELAW 1 While the Academic Annex procedure gives effect to the purpose of Part II, it is the School's policy to ensure as far as possible security of employment for its members. However it is recognised that there may be circumstances beyond the School's control which may affect staffing requirements. It is the School's agreed aim to maintain and enhance the efficiency with which its core purposes are carried out in order to safeguard the current and future employment of its members. The School, in consultation with the Local Association of the AUT, as the recognised Trade Union for staff covered by the 'Academic Annex', shall where possible seek ways to avoid redundancies and, where this is not possible, to minimise the impact of such redundancies which prove unavoidable through the provision of sufficient time and effort to finding alternative employment for staff made redundant. The School shall also seek to handle all compulsory redundancies in the most fair, consistent and sympathetic manner possible and to minimise as far as possible any hardship that may be suffered by the employees concerned.

Exclusion from Part II of persons appointed or promoted before 20 November 1987

BYELAW 3 In formulating recommendations for redundancy under paragraph 11 (1) (a) of the Academic Annex, the Redundancy Committee shall in particular take account of the following general factors in selecting potential candidates for redundancy:

a) skills, qualifications, experience and aptitudes;

b) period of service;

c) standard of work performance;

d) potential adaptability for alternative work.

As stated in Byelaw 1, these criteria shall be applied in as objective, fair, consistent and non-discriminatory a manner as possible.

- a) the option of payment in lieu of notice in accordance with contractual entitlements;
- b) that the School shall make every effort to seek alternative employment in the School for them and shall take steps to inform them of any available vacancies;
- c) that the School shall also endeavour to assist members for whom alternative employment cannot be found in the School to find outside employment. Individual counselling and the provision of appropriate supporting resources shall also be made available to members made compulsorily redundant.
- d) the entitlements they have to compensation in accordance with the statutory redundancy payments scheme and the method of calculation of their redundancy pay;

Part III - Disciplinary and Dismissals and Removal from Office

Disciplinary Procedures

(1) Minor faults shall be dealt with informally.

BYELAW 1 The following procedure shall be followed in dealing with minor faults under paragraph 13.1 of the Academic Annex:

i. Minor breaches of discipline may result in an informal oral warning being given by the Convener, Head of Institute/ Research Centre or immediate reporting officer of the member of staff. A note of the content of this warning shall be kept by the Convener/ Head of Institute/ Research Centre/ Head of Service.

ii. It is expected that in most cases an informal oral warning shall quickly resolve most difficulties without the necessity of recourse to the formal procedures in paragraphs 13 (2) to 20 of the Academic Annex.

iii. Examples of the type of conduct which may initially be dealt with informally are unexplained lateness or absence.

(2) Where the matter is more serious but falls short of constituting possible good cause for dismissal the following procedure shall be used:-

BYELAW 2 The formal procedure set out in paragraph 13 (2) shall also be used when an employee, having received an appropriate informal warning, fails to improve and maintain that improvement with regard to conduct or job performance.

Stage 1 - Oral Warning

If conduct or performance does not meet acceptable standards the member of the academic staff will normally be given a formal ORAL WARNING. The member will be advised of the reason for the warning, that it is the first stage of the disciplinary procedure and of the right of appeal under this paragraph. A brief note of the oral warning will be kept but it will be spent after twelve months, subject to satisfactory conduct and performance.

Stage 2 - Written Warning

If the offence is a serious one, or if a further offence occurs, a WRITTEN WARNING will be given to the member of the academic staff by the Convenor or Head of the Institute, Research Centre or Service concerned. This will give details of the complaint, the improvement required and the timescale. It will warn that a complaint may be made to the School Secretary seeking the institution of charges to be heard by a Tribunal appointed under paragraph 16 if there is no satisfactory improvement and will advise of the right of appeal under this paragraph. A copy of this written warning will be kept by the Convenor or Head of the Institute, Research Centre or Service concerned but it will be disregarded for disciplinary purposes after two years subject to satisfactory conduct and performance.

i. The formal procedure in stage 2 in paragraph 13 (2) shall be invoked by the Convener of Department, Head of Institute/ Research Centre or immediate reporting officer of the member of staff, who shall make it clear in writing to the member that the formal procedure is being followed, and the complaints to be considered.

ii. Any Convener, Head of Institute/ Research Centre or immediate reporting officer proposing to invoke the formal procedures shall first consult Personnel Services.

iii. Where an accredited trade union representative may be liable to disciplinary action, Personnel Services should be informed immediately so that contact may be made with a full-time trade union official.

iv. In any case, where the School knows that a member of staff is a member of the LSE Association of the AUT, the Branch President shall be told by the School that a complaint has been lodged together with the nature of the complaint. Where the member of staff who is subject of a complaint is not to the knowledge of the School an A UT member, the Branch President shall be told that a complaint has been lodged against a colleague without the member concerned being named, together with the nature of the complaint.

v. When an allegation of misconduct or unsatisfactory performance falling short of possible good cause for dismissal arises, an investigation shall be conducted by the Convener of Department, Head of Institute/ Research Centre, immediate reporting officer or their nominated representative, unless they are personally involved in any incident of alleged misconduct. A member of the Staffing Office shall also be involved in the investigation. The investigation shall include the questioning of witnesses and the employee concerned, who may be accompanied by a representative of the Local AUT or some other person of the employee's choice.

vi. If the Convener, Head of Institute/ Research Centre is personally involved in the alleged misconduct, the investigation shall be conducted by a nominee of the Director, who shall be of equivalent status to the Convener Head of Institute/ Research Centre or immediate reporting officer.

vii. A member may be suspended on full pay if, in the view of the Convener, Head of Institute/ Research Centre or immediate reporting officer or their nominated representative or nominee of the Director, that would assist the investigation. A suspension on full pay shall not normally exceed three working days, but may be longer if that is considered necessary to assist the investigation. In every case, the member shall be informed in writing of the reason (s) for the suspension and the duration of it.

viii. If following investigation, it is found that disciplinary action may be justified, a formal disciplinary hearing shall be arranged by Personnel Services, normally within five working days of the end of the investigations. The employee shall be informed in writing of the date, time and place of the hearing, and of the right to be accompanied by a representative of the Local AUT or another person of their choice.

ix. The Disciplinary Panel shall normally comprise the Convener, Head of Institute/ Research Centre or immediate reporting officer, a further member of management if that is considered appropriate, and a member of the Staffing Office who shall act as an advisor to the Panel. Where the Convener, Head of Institute/ Research Centre or immediate reporting officer is personally involved the Director shall make arrangements for his nominee(s) to be present to consider the evidence presented by the Convener/Head of Institute/ Research Centre or immediate reporting officer, and the employee, together with a member of the Staffing Office.

x. The employee shall have the right to call witnesses to the hearing, and shall be afforded every opportunity at the hearing to state the member's case before a determination on the case is made.

xi. There shall be provision for the adjournment of disciplinary hearings if any matter is raised which requires further checking or investigation before a decision as to penalty is taken.

xii. Following consideration of the evidence, the Convener, Head of Institute/ Research Centre, immediate reporting officer or Director's nominee shall inform the member in writing within five working days of the hearing of the nature of the disciplinary action to be taken under paragraph 13(2).

BYELAW 4

The following byelaw elaborates on the provisions of paragraph 13 (2) stage 2 regarding the issue of written disciplinary warnings:

- i. At the discretion of the Disciplinary Panel and depending on the seriousness of the offence, a written warning may be imposed under Stage 2 without an oral warning (Stage 1) having previously been given.
- ii. At the discretion of the Disciplinary Panel a first written warning may be imposed as an intermediate stage between an oral warning and a final written warning. A first written warning shall normally be kept on the member's personal file in the Staffing Office for twelve months, after which time it shall be expunged, subject to satisfactory conduct and performance.
- iii. Except in cases of gross misconduct which shall be dealt with under paragraphs 14-20, there shall not normally be dismissal for a first offence.

BYELAW 5

This byelaw relates to the arrangements for the retention of written warnings issued under paragraph 13(2) stage 2. A copy of a final written warning shall also be kept on the individual's personal file in the Staffing Office for two years.

Stage 3 - Appeals

A member of the academic staff who wishes to appeal against a disciplinary warning shall inform the School Secretary within two weeks. The Vice-Chairman of the Appointments Committee shall hear all such appeals and his decision shall be final.

BYELAW 6

- i. On receipt of a notification of appeal against a disciplinary warning under paragraph 13(2), the Secretary shall arrange for an appeal to be heard under "Stage 3 " of the procedure within ten working days, or as soon as is reasonably practicable.
- ii. The Vice-Chairman of the Appointments Committee shall hear the appeal with a member of Personnel Services in attendance to advise on procedure. The appellant shall have the right to be accompanied by a representative of the Local AUT, or by another person of the appellant's choice, to introduce new evidence and to call witnesses to the appeal hearing as appropriate at the discretion of the Vice-Chairman of the Appointments Committee. The Vice-Chairman may, if it appears to him necessary to assist in the determination of the appeal, also call the Converter, Head of Research Centre/ Institute, immediate line manager, or Director's nominee, who imposed the disciplinary penalty to attend the hearing as a witness.

iii. There shall be provision for adjournments of the hearing if the Vice-Chairman considers it necessary.

iv. The decision of the Vice-Chairman on the appeal shall be conveyed to the appellant in writing within three working days of the appeal hearing, with a copy, if applicable, to his trades union representative. There shall be no further right of appeal.

Preliminary examination of serious disciplinary matters

(1) If there has been no satisfactory improvement following a written warning given under Stage 2 of the procedure in paragraph 13, or in any other case where it is alleged that conduct or performance may constitute good cause for dismissal or removal from office, a complaint seeking the institution of charges to be heard by the Tribunal appointed under paragraph 16 may be made to the School Secretary who shall bring it to the attention of the Director.

BYELAW 7

i. This byelaw sets out the arrangements for consideration of a complaint under the provisions of paragraph 14(l) of the "Academic Annex". It is expected that the complaint to the School Secretary shall be made by the Convener, Head of Centre/ institute or immediate reporting officer. If the complaint is against the School Secretary, it shall be lodged directly with the Director. The School Secretary shall notify the member of staff that a formal complaint has been lodged under this part of the disciplinary procedure within five working days of the receipt of the complaint and advise the member of the provisions of the procedure.

ii. If the employee is known to be a member of the Local Association of the AUT, the School Secretary shall inform the Branch Secretary that a complaint has been made and shall be considered under the good cause provisions of the Academic Annex procedure.

iii. The Director shall normally seek to conclude his investigations into the complaint within twenty-eight days of the receipt of the complaint, and shall notify his decision as to future action in writing to the member within five working days of the conclusion of the investigations.

iv. The Director shall inform the employee in writing of his determination of the complaint, following the receipt of comments (if any) from the member within fourteen days of the receipt of comments or upon the expiry of the twenty-eight days provided for the submission of comments under paragraph 14(7). When the employee is a member of the Local Association of the AUT, the Director shall send a copy of his letter to the Branch President.

(2) To enable the Director to deal fairly with any complaint brought to his attention under sub-paragraph (1) he shall institute such investigations or enquiries (if any) as appear to him to be necessary.

(3) If it appears to the Director that a complaint brought to his attention under sub-paragraph (1) relates to conduct or performance which does not meet acceptable standards but for which no written warning has been given under paragraph 13 or which relates to a particular alleged infringement of rules, regulations or byelaws for which a standard penalty is normally imposed in the School or within the department or other relevant area, or is trivial or invalid he may dismiss it summarily, or decide not to proceed further under this Part.

(4) If the Director does not dispose of a complaint under sub-paragraph (3) he shall treat the complaint as disclosing a sufficient reason for proceeding further under this Part and, if he sees fit, he may suspend the member on full pay pending a final decision.

(5) Where the Director proceeds further under this Part he shall write to the member of the academic staff concerned inviting comment in writing.

(6) As soon as may be following receipt of the comments (if any) the Director shall consider the matter in the light of all the material then available and may -

a) dismiss it himself; or

b) refer it for consideration under paragraph 13; or

c) deal with it informally himself if it appears to the Director appropriate to do so and if the member of the academic staff agrees in writing that the matter should be dealt with in that way; or

d) direct the School Secretary to prefer a charge or charges to be considered by a Tribunal to be appointed under paragraph 16.

(7) If no comment is received within twenty-eight days the Director may proceed as aforesaid as if the member concerned had denied the substance and validity of the alleged case in its entirety.

Institution of Charges

(1) In any case where the Director has directed that a charge or charges be preferred under paragraph 14(6)(d), he shall request the Standing Committee to appoint a Tribunal under paragraph 16 to hear the charge or charges and to determine whether the conduct or performance of the member of the academic staff concerned constitutes good cause for dismissal or otherwise constitutes a serious complaint relating to the member's appointment or employment.

(2) Where the Standing Committee has been requested to appoint a Tribunal under paragraph 16 the School Secretary or, if he is unable to act, another officer appointed by the Director shall take charge of the proceedings.

(3) The officer in charge of the proceedings shall formulate, or arrange for the formulation of, the charge or charges and shall present, or arrange for the presentation of, the charge or charges before the Tribunal.

(4) It shall be the duty of the officer in charge of the proceedings

a) to forward the charge or charges to the Tribunal and to the member of the academic staff concerned together with the other documents therein specified, and

b) to make any necessary administrative arrangements for the summoning of witnesses, the production of documents and generally for the proper presentation of the case before the Tribunal.

BYELAW 8

This byelaw provides arrangements in respect of summoning a Tribunal set up under paragraphs 14 (6) (d) and 15 (4) of the 'Academic Annex'. The officer in charge of the proceedings shall normally arrange for a meeting of the Tribunal to be held within twenty-eight days of the Director's notification to the member that he has determined that the complaint should be considered by a Tribunal under paragraph 16. The employee shall be given at least twenty-one days' notice of the date, time and place of the Tribunal hearing and shall be advised of the possible outcomes if the complaint is upheld.

The Tribunal

16. A Tribunal appointed by the Standing Committee shall comprise:

a) a Chairman; and

- b) one member of the Standing Committee, not being a person employed by the School; and
- c) one member of the academic staff nominated by the Academic Board.

BYELAW 9

This shall comprise ten members, consisting of three Professors, three Senior Lecturers/ Readers and four Lecturers. The names of the academic members of the Tribunal shall be drawn by lots from among this panel. The drawing of the lots shall be arranged by the Vice-Chairman of the Academic Board, who shall notify the member of staff on every occasion of the time and place at which the lots shall be drawn and shall inform the officer in charge of the proceedings and the member and the Local Association of the AUT, if the member is known to be an AUT member, of the result. The Standing Committee shall be asked formally to endorse the appointment of the Academic Board nominee to the Tribunal.
- ii. Academic Governors and members of the Executive of the Local Association of the AUT shall not be eligible for nomination to the Tribunal, but may vote and make nominations.
- iii. The Standing Committee member of the Tribunal shall be drawn from the Lay Governor membership of the Committee by lot, and the member notified of the result, together with the Local Association of the AUT if the member is known to be an AUT member. The Standing Committee shall be asked formally to endorse the appointment of the Lay Governor member to the Tribunal.
- iv. The Chairman of the Tribunal shall be appointed by the Standing Committee from among the lay governors of the Court of Governors who are not also members of the Standing Committee. The member shall be notified of the appointment to the Chair of the Tribunal together with the Local Association of the AUT, if the member is known to be an AUT member.
- v. The member shall, if he is an Appointed Teacher, be informed of the University nominations to the Tribunal.
- vi. The individual shall have the right to challenge the membership of the Tribunal for good cause, e.g. in respect of equal opportunities considerations.
- vii. Where an elected member of the Tribunal is unable to be present at any stage of the proceedings, they shall inform the Chairman who shall make arrangements to appoint a replacement. A majority of the Tribunal shall be continuously present; if this is not possible, the proceedings shall be stopped and recommenced with a new membership.

Provided that in any case where the member of the academic staff concerned is an Appointed Teacher of the University, the Tribunal shall include, in addition to the members referred to under sub-paragraphs (b) and (c), two members nominated by the University, not being persons employed by the School.

BYELAW 10

It shall additionally be the responsibility of the officer in charge of the proceedings, under paragraph 16 of the 'Academic Annex', to make the necessary liaison with the University of London for the nomination of two University nominees to the Tribunal where the member of the academic staff concerned is an Appointed Teacher of the University.

(4) If the Director is satisfied that the subject matter of the grievance could properly be considered with (or form the whole or any part of) -

- (a) a complaint under Part III;
- (b) a determination under Part IV; or
- (c) an appeal under Part V

he shall defer action upon it under this Part until the relevant complaint, determination or appeal has been heard or the time for instituting it has passed and he shall notify the member and the Grievance Committee accordingly.

(5) If the Director does not reject the complaint under subparagraph (3) or if he does not defer action upon it under subparagraph (4) he shall decide whether it would be appropriate, having regard to the interests of justice and fairness, for him to seek to dispose of it informally. If he so decides he shall notify the member and proceed accordingly.
