

LSE INTERCOLLEGIATE FEE CHARGING POLICY FOR 2015/16 ENTRY

- A. All students from other colleges of the University of London should be charged for taking courses at the School unless there are institutional agreements to the contrary or reciprocal arrangements in place.
- B. In 2015/16 the only institutional agreement is:
- students of the London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine (LSHTM) registered on the joint MSc in Health Policy, Planning and Financing will pay fees to LSHTM. The fees will then be split between the School and LSHTM on the basis set out in the institutional agreement.
- C. Intercollegiate students will be charged a fee which is proportional to the relevant full time fee for a similar programme at the School. Thus, in the commonest example, a student taking a single full unit course would be charged one quarter of the relevant full time rate. The fees per full unit course for 2015/16 are as follows:

Level / Fee Status / Course Prefix	Full Unit	Half Unit
Undergraduate – Home/EU	£2,250	£1,125
Undergraduate – Overseas	£4,260	£2,130
Graduate – Home/EU students taking courses prefixed AN, DV, EH, GI, GV, GY, HY, LL, LN, MA, MY, PH, PS, SA, SO or ST	£3,006	£1,503
Graduate – Overseas students taking courses prefixed AN, DV, EH, GI, GV, GY, HY, LL, LN, MA, MY, PH, PS, SA, SO or ST	£4,650	£2,325
Graduate – Any student taking courses prefixed EU, IR or MC	£4,650	£2,325
Graduate – Home/EU student taking courses prefixed AC, EC, FM, ID, IS, MG, MN or OR	£5,994	£2,997
Graduate – Overseas student taking courses prefixed AC, EC, FM, ID, IS, MG, MN or OR	£6,114	£3,057

- D. All students being taught must be registered with LSE through the Undergraduate Office or Graduate School as appropriate and be recorded on SITS (the School's student record system), having paid or guaranteed any fee charged. The School will invoice the college concerned and not the student. The fees are payable to the School and not to an academic department or an individual academic. In the case of default, normal fee recovery procedures and penalties will apply.
- E. Students registered on any course taught at LSE will be deemed to have entered for the examination. If they register after the closing date for LSE students the School does not guarantee to take account of their choice in scheduling examinations.
- F. Where a pre-sessional course is required before progression to another LSE course is permitted, a fee equivalent to a half unit for a similar programme will be charged. Students who do not progress beyond the pre-sessional course will not receive a fee refund. Those who progress to a half unit course at the School will not be required to pay a further fee. Those who progress to a full unit course at the School will be required to pay a fee equivalent to a further half unit.
